JAMES ALEXANDER HOOD resides at 5120 Fairview, Detroit, Michigan, [REDACTED], Mr. [REDACTED]. HOOD is presently employed by the Ford Motor Company in Livonia, Michigan, but will terminate his employment within the next week and become a full time student at Wayne State University (WSU), Detroit.

HOOD claims to be the first Negro to have been admitted to the University of Alabama in the summer of 1963 and states that he is acquainted with Attorney General NICHOLAS KATZENBACH and Mr. JOHN DOAR of the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Indices of the Detroit Division are negative with the exception of the matter reported by letterhead memorandum dated September 15, 1965, entitled "UNSUBS; JAMES ALEXANDER HOOD - VICTIM".

HOOD displayed a very cooperative attitude and indicated he would help the Bureau in any way possible as he felt a debt to the U.S. Government for the aid previously given him. HOOD is not known to be a member of any hate-type organization and is taking no steps to become a member. There are various racial groups on the campus of the WSU [REDACTED]

The first two studies were conducted by researchers at the University of Illinois at Chicago. In the first study, 100 students completed a questionnaire about their attitudes toward gay, lesbian, and transgender people. The results showed that students who had more contact with LGBTQ+ individuals had more positive attitudes.

June 7, 1966

J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We are interested in obtaining two copies of this year's Uniform Crime Report, and also two copies of the booklet How To Report Crime.

Any charges will be gladly paid for these publications; we need only know the cost, fees or charges.

We would like to also know of any additional publications that will give additional statistics of crime in the Detroit and surrounding areas. Any additional information that you or your department can share with us will be gratefully appreciated.

Respectfully,

James A. Hood

Dear Mr. Hood:

Your letter of June 7th has been received.

With respect to your request, I am enclosing two copies of our preliminary annual release of crime figures for 1965. The Uniform Crime Reports bulletin will be published late in the summer and arrangements have been made to send you two copies at that time. There is no charge for any material we are privileged to disseminate.

This Bureau does not have a publication entitled "How to Report Crime"; however, you may be referring to our Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook. For your information, this booklet is published primarily for law enforcement officials and agencies. I regret I cannot honor your request.

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director
